

Energy Policy, Special Issue « Behavioural insights for sustainable energy use: Theories, evidence and policy implications.»

Stéphane Goutte, Editor, stephane.goutte@uvsq.fr

Guest Editors:

Xianli Zhu (Denmark Technical University, DTU, Denmark)

Luis Mundaca (Lund University, Sweden)

Markus Hackenfort (Zurich University of Applied Sciences, ZHAW, Switzerland)

Key Dates:

Submission full papers: 1st June 2021 (or earlier)

Publication of the special issue: December 2021

Energy Policy:

CiteScore: 8.7 Impact Factor: 5.042

Summary of activity for the journal office between Jan 01, 2021 and Apr 23, 2021.

More than 1000 submissions (>4000 expected for 2021).

Reject – Without Review: 68% Reject – After review: 14% Revision: 17% Transfer – 1%

Acceptation after round 1: 40% Reject: 14%

Acceptation after round 2: 68% Reject: 7%

Acceptation after round 3: 77% Reject: 7%

Given the aims and scope of Energy Policy, all submitted papers should explicitly address policy issues involving energy supply or use.